HOLD MAJESTIC HILLS CARNIVAL THIS WEEK-END

Colorful Schedule Opens Tonight

BY HOWARD BARRY

Majestic Hills, at Lake Geneva, opens a winter carnival tonight with a teen-age dance and torch parade. Festivities will continue thru the week-end with a varied program which will be exciting and informative to participants and spectators. Prizes of considerable value will be presented to winners.

There will be slalom races, obstacle course races, demonstrations by expert ski instructors, hockey on skis, an ice sculpture exhibition, a queen contest, crazy costume awards, and dancing to band music tonight for teens and tomorrow night for adults.

Sponsored by Jaycees

The event is co-sponsored by the Lake Geneva Junior Chamber of Commerce. Nearby Wilmot Hills, which will hold its own winter carnival March 8, will send over some of its instructors to assist the Majestic Hills staff in demonstrations.

The queen will be chosen tomorrow from 10 finalists on the basis of skiing ability, charm, and grace. She will receive a complete outfit of ski clothes and four days at Hochlandhof in Winter Park, Colo.

The outstanding skier of the carnival will receive a pair of Head skis, compliments of the Head Ski company. Other prizes will include lift tickets at Aspen, Sun Valley and other western ski areas. Cash awards will be given for the three best ice sculpture productions.

How It's Played

Ski hockey is a game which originated at Winter Park. The contestants use b r o o m s for sticks and an after ski boot for a puck.

In the demonstrations tomorrow and Sunday, certified instructors will cover all phases of skiing from fundamentals to the highly developed maneuvers of experts. Everything from the snowplow to the Mambo and Wedeln will be covered.

After tonight's social events and torch parade, the skiing phase of the carnival will begin at 11 a. m. tomorrow with slalom races for youngsters 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 years of age. The queen contest will be held at 1 p. m. with the announcement of the winner at 4 p. m. Meanwhile there will be ski hockey at 1:30 p. m. and demonstrations at 3 p. m.

Races and Dancing

Tomorrow evening there will be obstacle races at 7 p. m. followed by dancing for adults and a torch parade.

Sunday's program will begin at 11:30 a. m. with slalom races for ages 10 to 13 and 14 to 17. At 1 p. m. there will be races for 18 thru 49 and 50 and older.

Meanwhile there will be ski hockey at noon and ice sculpture awards at 1 p. m. Crazy costume awards will be made also at that time. Racing awards will be made at 3 p. m. followed by ski demonstrations and an obstacle course race. The hill will close at 5 p. m. Sunday.

P. G. A. HEAD RESPONDS TO CONTRACT SUIT

Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., Feb. 20 (AP)—More than 400 golfers teed off today in the Professional Golf association's Senior tournament over its new courses here but the real battle appeared to be shaping up in the courts as Warren Cantrell, P. G. A. president, made an answer to a breach of contract suit against the organization.

Cantrell reported that the P. G. A. is prepared to buy the clubhouse and two adjoining 18-hole golf courses it commissioned Multimillionaire John D. MacArthur to build for use as national P. G. A. headquarters. But Cantrell claimed that MacArthur has neither fulfilled all the building commitments nor furnished clear title to the land.

MacArthur, head of the Bankers Life and Casualty company of Chicago and founder of Palm Beach Gardens, filed suit yesterday charging that the P. G. A. had failed to execute a contract to buy the club.

BOB CHAMPS ENTER

TORONTO, Feb. 20 [AP] — The Canadian Olympic bobsled team, winner of a gold medal at Innsbruck, Austria, earlier this month, will participate in the North American meet in Lake Placid, N. Y., Saturday.

Better Deal than Football

Ed O'Bradovich, Chicago Bear defensive end, never had it so good getting up off the football field. After a ski tumble at Chestnut Mountain lodge, Galena, Ill., he gets helping hands from Barbara Hudson (left) and Sondra Wright, Ozark Airlines stewardesses.

SNOW CHASE CLUB TO HOLD 7th SKI MEET

The Snow Chase club of Chicago will hold its seventh annual slalom ski meet March 7 at Cliff's lodge, Marquette, Mich.

"This is strictly a fun meet," said Edmund G. Pabst, chairman of the event. "It is not deadly serious competition, as our past events have shown."

Two Slalom Runs

The race will consist of two slalom runs in classes for junior boys and girls and adult men and women. The results will be announced at a dinner that evening in the Northwoods restaurant in Marquette. All contestants will be guests of the Snow Chase club at dinner.

Pabst said that the ski meet is one of the means the Snow Chasers use for raising funds to contribute to the United States team in Olympic years. In the other years, he said, the money is contributed to the Skiers Training-Trust for helping potential Olympic skiers.

Deadline March 2

"The competition is open to any member of the Central United States Ski association," Pabst said. "The deadline for entries is March 2. Entry blanks may be obtained at the Snow Chase club, 4 W. Burton place, Chicago. There is an entry fee of $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for juniors. A skier who wishes to compete but is not a member of the association may join for a fee of $3 when registering at the lodge."

KNEE INJURY TAKES KIDD OUT OF MEET

SESTRIERE, Italy, Feb. 20 (AP)—Billy Kidd of Stowe, Vt., silver medal winner in the slalom at the winter Olympics, was forced out of a week-end meet here when he suffered a twisted right knee in a training accident today.

A doctor said Kidd would not be able to ski for a week.

Johnathan Thomas, 9, and his St. Bernard, Sinner, take chair lift on 3,852-foot ride to top of ski run at Shanty Creek lodge, Bellaire, Mich.

A BOY AND DOG SKIING PALS AT SHANTY CREEK

Bellaire, Mich., Feb. 20 [Special]—Sinner, a St. Bernard dog, likes to go skiing with his master, 9-year-old Johnathan Thomas of Birmingham, Mich. Sinner rides with Johnathan for 3,852 feet on a double chairlift, then races down with him as he skiis the slopes of Shanty Creek, a new $2,500,00 ski area located two miles east of Bellaire.

Taking its name from an old shack, still on the property, which was built by a 19th century trapper, Shanty Creek lodge is located on a high hill overlooking 1,500 acres of slopes, forests, and lakes.

Down these slopes Johnathan goes with Sinner: "I never really knew what schussing was until Sinner began setting the pace," Johnathan says.
