

Estherville, Spirit Lake Skiers Honored

A Spirit Lake man was named outstanding ski patrolman in the section and the Holiday Mountain Ski Patrol was chosen as the section's outstanding patrol of the year at the April meeting of National Ski Patrol System officers in Cedar Falls.

In addition to being named to the honor of outstanding patrolman, Lee Currier was named to head the sectional testing team. Working with him will be Ron Riedemann, Estherville, and patrolmen from three other areas.

Riedemann will also be serving the assistant section chief. He is to be in charge of Holiday Ski Mountain, Winter Playland, Ted's Ski Hill, Snow Valley, and Crescent Ski Hills. Cliff Hunt, Estherville, is the new patrol leader at Holiday Mountain.

Don Sievers, owner of Holiday Ski Mountain, received special recognition for his work with the National Ski Patrol.
