

Skiers Desert Stamping Grounds for Lodges in Laurentians

BY IRENE NEUMANN

THE SKI TOW at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club attracted followers of that sport for a time, but the inveterate skiers like Mrs. Alvan Macauley, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, and some of the others, finally have succumbed to the lure of the Laurentian Mountains in Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer J. Neff are up there, and Mrs. Graham John Graham and Mrs. Henry Reichhold, who have been at Sun Valley in the winter season each year since it opened, are at Mont Temblant Lodge (which incidentally is the lodge from which Lowell Thomas has done many of his broadcasts).

Mr. and Mrs. Macauley and Mr. and Mrs. David Wallace, also of the Pointe, together with Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman Booth, of the Hills, are visiting at the home of an Austrian ski master, the Duc de Leuchtenberg, at St. Leveuer.

They'll all be home along about the middle of the week.

Mrs. Walter Thompson was hostess at a luncheon at the Detroit Club for several of her friends Thursday afternoon. Included were Mrs. Rufus Clark, Mrs. Arthur O'Connor, Mrs. Thomas Milton, Mrs. Frank Lambert, Mrs. Frank W. Blair, Mrs. Liela Glenn, of New York, and Mrs. Robert Meder.

Mrs. Geoffrey Letchworth, Jr., who came on last week-end from her home in Buffalo to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Fry, left on Saturday for St. Johns, Mich., where she is the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. Clare Backhurst for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan D. Douglass and Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Evans left Wednesday for Los Angeles to be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Otis Thompson, who has been at Kennoway for several weeks visiting Mrs. W. D. Thompson, left on Tuesday for her home in Bethlehem, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus D. Pope, who only recently came back to Apple Lane Farm, have gone on their way again. They are at Tucson, Ariz., and will be there until April.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. MacManus returned to their home on Tuesday from a short stay in Springfield, O., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Briggs entertained for their guests at a cocktail party in their home last Sunday evening. Other guests of the Briggs' over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. John Redmond, of Detroit.

Joseph A. Braun entertained at a dinner at the Kingsley Inn last Thursday evening, honoring his youngest son, Philip Braun, who is now at Camp Custer.

Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph Lindquist were hosts at a dinner in their home last Sunday evening, honoring Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Lewis, of Columbus, O., who were their guests. Others at the dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Herman Sheibler, Dr. and Mrs. Dwight B. Ireland and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pyle.

Lieut. William Powell, a member of the U. S. Marines and here from Quantico, Va., is the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Biggers are in Boston where they went to attend the announcement party of their daughter, Judith Cameron Biggers, a tea at Wheaton College Saturday afternoon. Cameron is engaged to Lieut. (j.g.) Hugh S. Wagner, of Milwaukee.
