Boy's Ankle Fractured On Ski Tow

His foot entangled in a ski-tow rope, Ronald E. Dunn, 14, of 2822 Raskob St., was injured when he was dragged up a hill at Mott Camp Sunday.

He went to St. Joseph Hospital with compound fractures of his ankle and foot. Sheriff's deputies said the foot was nearly severed.

Ronald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Dunn, was tobogganing with a group of youngsters from Calvary Methodist Church. About 12:30 P. M., he started up a hill on the ski-tow rope.

His foot became entangled and he was dragged up the hill before his cries for help were heard and the tow stopped.
