

SKI REPORTS

BUCK HILL, five miles south from Minnesota River on Lyndale avenue—Opening for skiing Saturday, December 18. Four inch packed base. Two inches powder. Skiing good.

KINGS GATEWAY HOTEL, Land O'Lakes, Wis. Six inches new powder on six inch old base. Skiing excellent.

LUTSEN REORT, Lutsen, Minn.—One to two inches powder on five to six inch base. Skiing good.

MT. NORMANDALE SKI AREA.— 96th and Normandale Road, Edina—Three inch packed base. Skiing fair to good.

NORSKI HILL, out Robert street, about 10 miles from Twin Cities, Hwy. 218 and Dakota Co. No. 5. One inch powder over good base. Well lighted hill for night skiing. Free instructions for beginners. Skiing good.

PORCUPINE MOUNTAIN STATE PARK, Ontonagon, Mich.—Ten inch base. Three inch wet surface. No skiing.

SNAIL LAKE SKI AREA, Hy. 96 and Lexington avenue, St. Paul.—Two to three inch base. Skiing good.

TROLLHAUGEN SKI AREA, Dresser, Wis. Light snow on two inch base. Skiing fair.