

Ski Reports

LAKE BENTON VALLEY Ski Resort, Pipestone, Minn.—North of tow well packed. South of tow plenty of sugary snow. Operating Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons. One tow.

MOUNT TELEMAR, Hayward, Wis.—Three inches new powder snow on six to nine inch base. Skiing good.

TERRY PEAK, Black Hills, South Dakota —Two inches fresh powder snow on 4 to 14 inches packed base. Skiing excellent.

RIPLEY HILLS, Houghton, Mich.—3½ inches new powder snow over 8 inches packed base. Skiing fair to good. Tows operating daily all day. Wednesday evenings 7 to 10 under lights.

HALLAWAY HILLS, Pelican Rapids, Minn.—Two inches new snow on four to eight inch base. Skiing excellent. Four tows in operation.

PORCUPINE MOUNTAIN, Ontonagon, Mich.—Six inches ew powder on six inch base. Skiing good.

TELEMAR, Hayward, Wis.—Four inches of new powder snow on six to nine inch packed base. Skiing excellent.

KINGS GATEWAY, Land O'Lakes, Wis.—Base 4 inches. Granular frozen new fall 8-12 inches. Settled powder. Skiing excellent.