BERLIN — Skiers, get ready! Managers Dave Jezwinski and George Hess have anounced that Frolic Valley Ski Hill, three miles south of Berlin on the old Trillium Hill Road, will officially open this weekend with hours Saturday and Sunday between 1 and 5 p.m.

In addition, there will be nighttime skiing on Saturdays and Wednesdays between 7 and 9:30 p.m.

Hess said that the snow condition is excellent and that two new tow ropes will be ready for use.

Free ski and toboggan lessons will be given. Rental equipment will be available for the latter sport only.
