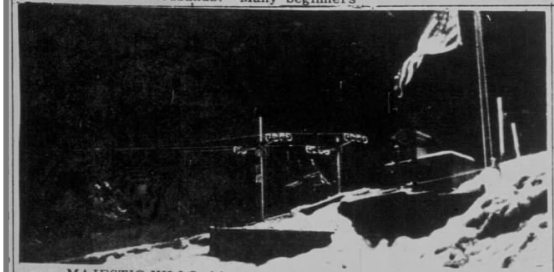
Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image-view/588422825/

THE OLDEST WALWORTH COUNTY ski area is Majestic Hills, located on the south shore of Geneva Lake. It opened Thanksgiving Day, 1957 and has since provided winter recreation for thousands. Many beginners have learned how to ski on the hill above. The wide, gentle bunny slope is an ideal area for the inexperienced skier.--Elkhorn Independent Photo.



MAJESTIC HILLS ski runs are serviced by two chairlifts and a number of rope tows. The top of this hill is the starting point for a new quarter mile run down a moderately wooded slope.--Elkhorn Independent Photo.

1975 Crop In... Offered to Ar...

The 1975 Federal Crop Insurance Program for Walworth County features increases in protection on the crops covered. The protection follows an estimated $1,500,000 in payments for crop losses under Federal Crop Insurance in Wisconsin last year, according to Karl J. Lee, FCIC agent for this county.

Farmers will be able to purchase crop insurance for 1975 with a higher dollar value per bushel and with a higher bushel guarantee per acre. Crops covered in the county are corn, oats, peas and soybeans.

For the second year, farm-

SKI INSTRUCTOR John Johnson of Lake Geneva shows how it's done to one of his students during a training session at the Holiday Inn's Interlaken Resort on Highway 50 west of Lake Geneva. The ski facility offers free ski lessons Monday through Thursday.--Cyndi Ferguson Photo.

INTERLAKEN SKI FANS Louise Osborne (left), a student at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee, and Judy May of Illinois relax on the slope. In the background is Lake Como. Interlaken is in its first year of operation and has two runs, one 850 feet long and the other 950 feet. The hills can accommodate 600 skiers and are geared for beginners and intermediates.

Copyright © 2025 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.