

Glancing Thru Our Yesteryears

25 Years Ago . . .

Jack Welt returned to Muskegon last night after spending the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welt of State street.

Rev. Charles Clay, pastor of Oak Park Congregational Church has moved here from Old Mission for the winter. He will continue his work in the Old Mission Church.

Mrs. Free Davies and sons, Fred and George, left today for their home at Savannah, Ga., following a month's stay with her mother, Mrs. George Zimmerman of Silver Lake.

15 Years Ago . . .

A former ski-jumper, Ragnar Robertson, of Elberta, native of Norway, single-handedly cleared a 600 foot slope which overlooks the village of Frankfort for a ski run. The jump will be 200 ft. Known as the Elberta Mountain Winter Sports park, the ski run will provide recreation for those who have been wanting a good ski jump in this region.

Holy Rosary Church at Isadore celebrated its 25th anniversary this week. A banquet was served by the ladies of the church following Solemn high mass and the school children presented the program.