

Slide, ski hill

ISHPEMING — Another tight budget could keep two of the city's recreational facilities closed for a second consecutive winter.

The City Council last year closed the toboggan slide and ski hill at the Al Quaal Recreation Area. It was one of several cuts made in an effort to increase the city's rainy day fund.