

Ski Tow Here Now Is Ready

The ski tow in Central Park is now ready and only awaits snow, Thor Reque, city recreation director reports.

All switches and lights have been installed, through the courtesy of Edison Sault Electric Co., and new rope has been installed.

A schedule for holiday vacation activities will be set up by attendants and published soon.