
M A R Q U E T T E—Marquette's municipal ski area at the Mt. Mesnard winter sports area remains in the best condition it has been in all winter.

City Recreation Director James C. Engle said the heavy snowfalls the city received earlier this month have enabled the municipal ski area to offer the best skiing of the season.

