Mott Camp Injury Brings Suits

For injuries to a boy in a ski-tow accident at Mott Camp Feb. 16, 1958, two suits filed in Circuit Court ask a total of $110,000 of the Mott Foundation.

Complainants are Ronald Edward Dunn, now 15, and his father, Glenn L. Dunn, 2822 Raskob St. The father seeks $10,000 to cover expenses resulting from the son's injuries.

The Dunns' lawyer, M. Bushnell Trembley, said Ronald was hurt when his foot became entangled in the ski tow. The foot was nearly severed, Trembley alleges. For the boy, $100,000 is asked.

Ronald was at the camp with a group of youngsters from Calvary Methodist Church.
