

Catto Is Instructor In Skiing School

Marvin (Scotty) Catto, known to Flint as a golfer and basketball player, has branched out into Winter sports and is ski instructor at Skyline resort between Roscommon and Grayling. He reports conditions good there now, with an 8-inch blanket of snow.

Skyline runs are suited for novices and intermediates, Catto reports, the longest being three-quarters of a mile in length. There as a rope tow, shelter and commissary.