

Over at Waverly Golf Course, a new ski slope took shape last year and is being used on a limited basis this year. Work should continue this year toward a scheduled opening of the ski slope next winter, complete with a ski lift and regular ski instruction.