Winter Haven Fest Chairmen Are Announced

MISS MINNESOTA

Directors of the Winter Haven Carnival — to take place Friday, Saturday and Sunday—met Monday night to confirm chairmen as follows:

Martin Fruth, general chairman; Josep Gallus, button charman, and Doland Weis, queen chairman.

It was revealed following the meeting that the spectators at Winter Haven this year will find several new developments.

There are now four toboggan runs —down the Winter Haven hill and all the way across the valley. All are iced runways.

This fall the first ski hill has been constructed at Winter Haven. This hill was in operation last Sunday for use of a group of people from Minneapolis who visited Winter Haven on a special train. The hill has a good ski tow and will be in operation again next Sunday.

Sunday, third day of the carnival, also will mark the opening of a new log lodge at Winter Haven. This has been built especially for concession stands and as a lounge room for visitors.

The carnival will open Friday with a queens' banquet. Saturday will be highlighted by the Tommy Bartlett talent show at the Tech High auditorium in St. Cloud and Sunday carnival activities at Winter Haven will be climaxed by the coronation and ice skating activities. One of the entertainers on the talent show will be Miss Kathryn Clark, Miss Minnesota of 1951-52. This Minneapolis girl is not entered in the queen contest, but will appear only as an entertainer.

Ticket chairmen are: Friday night, Phillip Wies; Saturday night show at Tech, Ronald Weaver and Joseph Gallus; Sunday night talent show and queen coronation, Phillip Weis.

Chairman for the Tommy Bartlett banquet is Mrs. Otto Hochsprung. The skating rink at Winter Haven will be in charge of the Sartell fire department; toboggan slides, Hisle Cashman and Benjamin Binsfield; interior decoration of lodge, Edward Mangel; concession stands, John Villicheck; parking, John Bernick; seating, Emil Bernick; hospitality, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hochsprung, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallus, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferche; toboggan tow, Alvin Traut and Mr. Jansky; ski tow, Martin Fruth and Frank Ferche; sound car, Leander Theisen.
