

Hide-A-Way Hills Resort Growing Fast

Donelson Builders of Hide-A-Way Hills reports the number of homes now, under construction or in the planning stage at the fast-growing Hocking resort has far exceeded expectations for this early in the year.

A new line of manufactured leisure homes has been added to those already offered at Hide-A-Way Hills, with 13 basic models and innumerable variations. This line is added to conventional-type leisure homes and the popular Timber Lodge line, of which several have already been built.

Winter sports have been increasingly popular at Hide-A-Way Hills this winter. The 1,800-foot electric ski tow has been in use for some time, and the ski slope has been illuminated to make night skiing possible.

Members of the Columbus Ski Club used the Hide-A-Way Hills facilities recently for a full

License Bureau To Close Saturday For Legal Holiday

The Logan License Bureau, 297 E. Main St., will be closed Saturday in observance of Washington's Birthday, a legal holiday.

The office, however, will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday to give working people a chance to make 1964 auto license plate reservations, according to Dean Dollison, local deputy registrar of motor vehicles.

Reservations must be made by Saturday, Feb. 29. Persons wishing to reserve new auto tags must present $10.35 and a certificate of title.

Another development has been the "Holiday at Hide-A-Way" sales promotion, in which invitations for a free weekend at the resort have been extended to a select list of families.
