

Have you been called By Hide-A-Way Hills?

If not, stay close to your telephone for an exciting invitation to be among the first to have a vacation home in the newly opened Fairfield acres portion of Hide-A-Way Hills, Ohio's foremost leisure living community.

During the next few weeks, residents of the Newark area will receive telephone invitations to join with their friends and neighbors in visiting this beauty spot of the Hocking Hills.

Hide-A-Way Hills is a fact, not a promise. Five lakes, a golf course, swimming pool, clubhouse, tennis courts and facilities for eighteen other participating sports are established and available ... and it's only thirty miles from Newark.

Listen when Hide-A-Way Hills calls. You won't regret it!

HIDE-A-WAY HILLS