

Skiing Site Near Fort Offers Tow

Fort Atkinson An increasingly popular site for winter sports enthusiasts is North Hills, located on the "high road" to Jefferson about a mile from the Fort Atkinson city limits.

Officers of the North Hills Ski Club, Inc., are offering a ski tow in operation Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Snow conditions are perfect this year, officers claim, but so far not many from the area have been attracted to the 10-acre site.

The land includes a big hill with a drop of 150 feet and some of the ski runs are as long as 1,000 feet. The tow is 700 feet long.

Present officers of the club are Karl Fuge, Fort Atkinson, president; Dick Radtke, Jefferson, vice president, and Ray Persike, Fort Atkinson, secretary-treasurer. The group leases the land from the Herman Kassuve farm.
