BUILD WARMING HOUSE—Atop the hill on the Karl W. Fuge property, 1½ miles north of Fort Atkinson, is this new North Hills Ski club warming house now being completed. Mrs. Fuge and her daughter and son, Ellen and Bill, start at the house for the downhill run. Mr. Fuge was skiing at Aspen, Colo., when this picture was taken.

Dr. Richard Schroder, Janesville, is president of the club; John Van Altena, Rte. 1, Milton Junction, is treasurer; Mrs. Victor Falk, Edgerton, secretary. Fuge is hill captain. Others who helped found the club include Richard Radke and George Schakelmann, Jefferson, and Pat Abendroth, Fort Atkinson. The club has 16 active members.

The hill's rope tow, powered by a gasoline motor, is visible at right. The tow is operated Saturdays and Sundays from 1:30 to 5 p. m.

Third Victory in Less Than a Week for Local Tank Team

Janesville high school swimmers, coached by Jim Davies, rang up their third straight victory in less than a week when they nosed out Rockford East, 42-41, here Wednesday afternoon. It is believed to be the first time Bluebird tankmen ever triumphed over Rockford swimmers.

Fred Westphal, the meet captain, Roger Perry, Brian Steinke and John O'Donnell were the Janesville stars.

Westphal won the 40-yard free style, was second in the back stroke and swam on the winning 180-yard relay team. Perry won the 200-yard free style, was second in the 100-yard free style and was on the relay team. Steinke won the individual medley, was second in the breast stroke and was on the relay team.

O'Donnell won the fancy diving.
